

United States Constitution Requirement

The United States Constitution requirement can be met by one of the following:

CSU DEGREE:

A Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degree awarded by a CSU campus

COURSEWORK:

Completion of a two semester unit course, (or 3 quarter unit course), on the provisions and principles of the Constitution of the United States taken at a regionally accredited community college, or 4-year college or university.

- Submit a copy of the official transcripts, and/or
- Submit a copy of the course description or course syllabus, if requested

Coursework that does not meet this requirement:

California History, World History

Coursework that does meet this requirement:

American Government, American Politics, both U.S. History to 1877 AND U.S. History from 1877

The Commission on Teacher Credentialing (CTC) will accept coursework with grades of “C” or better only.

EXAMINATION:

Passage of an approved examination covering the provisions and principles of the Constitution of the United States

- COS Constitution Exam – call Mona Freeman at 559-730-3970 to schedule an exam.
- Notre Dame de Namur University, fee $85, www.usconstitutionexam.com
- Provide original COS letter to FICP, or email NDNU certificate to FICP