HR 2100.1

MANAGEMENT AND SUPERVISORY PERSONNEL STEP PLACEMENT

Initial placement for internal promotions for Management and Supervisory employees shall be on the first step, unless such placement shall be a reduction in salary. In such cases, the next highest step shall be appropriate placement. In the event the number of duty days between administrative positions should exceed 5% then the next highest step shall be applicable. An employee must work at least 50% of the year in their promoted position after receiving a promotion in order to receive a step increase for the next year.
